

ORGANIZE TO GIVE RELIEF TO STARVING

MEETING HELD THURSDAY AFTERNOON IN COURT HOUSE IS WELL ATTENDED—WILLIAM B. PECK MADE CHAIRMAN OF MOVEMENT TO SECURE FUNDS

The meeting to discuss a movement to secure relief for the starving held at the court house Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock was well attended. A fine representation of leading business men and women of the city was present. Reverend Mr. Raphael was made chairman of the meeting and Mr. Grant Scott was made secretary. Dr. Gobin read reports representing the work of the national trustees and the state officers and gave an appeal prepared by Mr. John H. Holiday of Indianapolis chairman of the Indiana Committee signed by Mr. Thomas C. Day of Indianapolis making a very strong and impressive representation of the Near East sufferers.

Mrs. John made a strong appeal in behalf of the starving millions in China. References were also made to the extreme destitution of the millions in central Europe. Altogether the amount of suffering of people in the world for food, clothing and housing it is possible greater than ever known before in human history.

After a discussion occupying nearly two hours, a business man's committee was appointed to have charge of the entire work of Putnam county with the understanding that the committee will be relieved of the personal solicitation of subscriptions but will have the authority to appoint sub committees on publicity and plans for bringing this great cause of the destitution to all the people of our County. It is understood that $5 per month will support an orphan in food, $10 a month in food and clothing and $15 a month in food, clothing and education. A report from the officers in Indiana shows that Putnam county has provided for 43 orphans and we need to make provision for 20 more in order to meet our quota for 1920. Early in 1921 a new canvas will be made throughout the whole country. It was well suggested in the meeting yesterday that we do not stop to parley over deficit but we need to go to work at once to raise money for these starving people.

While the representations before the meeting were really depressing on account of the magnitude of the destitute nations lifting up appealing hands toward America for relief, still there was a degree of comfort in the spirit of energy with which the meeting declared that relief work within our country must be begun at once and pushed with all possible haste.

The following were appointed to serve in the supervising committee: William B. Peck was made chairman, Charles McGaughey, Treasurer, Grant Scott, secretary. Other members of the committee who were present and participated in the discussion were C. H. Barnaby, W. M. Blanchard, and Sol Sudraski. This committee will meet today and begin at once plans for the completion of a canvas throughout Putnam county. All fair minded citizens, men, women and children, should not wait for solicitors to come but should take their offerings as Christmas gifts to the destitute to the treasurer Charles McGaughey, president of the Citizen's National Bank.

The tribe of Ben Hur will meet this evening in regular session. There will be election of officers. Nelson Taulman, chief, M. A. Keifer, scribe.

VERDICT FOR COMPANY IN BIG DAMAGE SUIT

DANVILLE, Ind., Dec. 9.—The jury found for the defendant company in the suit of Arthur Rose, administrator, vs. the T. H. I. & E. traction company for $10,000 damages on account of the death of Vernice Kivett on the morning of Nov. 9, 1917. Kivett was killed at the crossing of the National Road and the traction line one mile west of Plainfield.

Mr. Kivett and Mr. Kiser were driving a truck loaded with stock to Indianapolis. The morning was very dark and there was an unusually heavy fog. The evidence was that the strong headlight of a traction car and the strongest lights of an auto could not penetrate the fog more than 75 feet. Only one of the lights was burning on the Kivett machine.

A west bound freight car struck the truck. Kivett lived but a short time after the accident. Mr. Kiser was not injured.

Mr. Kivett was the son in law of Mr. and Mrs. Vermandes C. Hurst of this city.

MARTIAL LAW PLANNED FOR IRELAND NOW

GOVERNMENT DRIVEN TO ACTION BY RECENT INCIDENTS—NEED OF STRONGER ACTION IS APPARENT

LONDON, Dec. 10.—Martial law is to be applied in certain areas of Ireland, Premier Lloyd George announced in speaking in the House of Commons on the Irish situation.

The government has decided to give safe conduct to Sinn Fein members of the house of commons, so that they may meet with the government to discuss the Irish situation the premier said.

Safe conduct would not be granted the premier said, to those members who have been involved in the commission of serious crime.

Need of Stronger Action

Mr. Lloyd George emphasized the importance of the resolution of the Galway county council recently, which suggested that the ban on meetings of the Irish republican parliament should be withdrawn in order that delegates might be appointed to discuss the situation with the government.

In making announcement regarding martial law the premier said the government had been driven to the conclusion in view of recent incidents that it must take stronger action in certain districts areas.

Clippinger will also attend a meeting of the Conference of Education which will be held in the Meridian Street Church also.

JOHN K. BANGS NOTED AUTHOR, DELIGHTS MANY

TELLS GREAT AUDIENCE AT HIGH SCHOOL OF INTERESTING HAPPENINGS IN THE LIVES OF MANY NOTED MEN

John Kendrick Bangs delighted a large audience gathered at the High School auditorium Thursday night with his lecture "Salubrities I have Known." Mr. Bangs is the second internationally known lecturer to visit Greencastle under the local management of Miss Lela Walls to whom the community owes a vote of thanks. Last year she brought here Hugh Walpole of England.

Prof. F. C. Tilden, in introducing the speaker, said that he had been reading Mr. Bangs' books for so many years that he had come to think of the author as of a past age, back with Hawthorne and Thackeray. Now Prof. Tilden said, he discovered the speaker's hair to be but little grayer than his own though much less plentiful.

Mr. Bangs responded by telling of several introductions he had had in which he was accused of writing "everything from Fox's Book of Martyr's to Robert Chambers novels" and said that his past must have been searched like that of a criminal.

The lecture concerned itself with word pictures of incidents in the lives of great men, among whom was Winston Spencer Churchill, of England; Richard Harding Davis, the novelist; Rudyard Kipling; A. Conan Doyle, or Sherlock Holmes fame; of Stanley, the African explorer and of Mrs. Stanley. He recounted in a most interesting and humorous way his personal experiences with these and other men and women.

His lecture closed with a tribute to the spirit and sense of humor and bravery of the American soldier in France. He declared that the power of the soldier to look upon the bright side of the bad business of war, and to see the possibilities of a joke in every situation, even in the trenches themselves revealed the true heart and sturdy strength of America.

Many most favorable criticisms have been heard of Mr. Bangs effort, and Miss Walls is being congratulated on her skillful choice of lecturers for Greencastle.

Louise Lucas who has been quite ill for several days of throat and ear trouble is reported today to be improving.

Mr. and Mrs. George Snider of Lafayette who have been visiting relatives here for several days returned to their home Thursday.

GIPP REPORTED NEAR TO DEATH

NOTRE DAME FOOTBALLER'S CONDITION TAKES SERIOUS TURN—END EXPECTED SOON

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Dec. 9.—George Gipp, Notre Dame's brilliant half back, who is hailed the country over as one of the season's greatest college players, is gradually growing weaker. His condition today was the lowest since he was stricken with pneumonia, following the Notre Dame Northwestern game Nov. 20. He is suffering now with streptococcal throat trouble and the toxins of the disease are affecting his whole system.

Gloom hung over the student body as reports from the sick room were anxiously read. The blood which members of the football team offered in a final effort to save the ill-fated athlete's life has not been transfused. The transfusion would do no good in the opinion of local medics.

Sister's of St. Joseph's hospital where Gipp is confined and doctors attending the Notre Dame athletic idol denied today persistent rumors that he is dying. His condition was announced as grave with little or no chance of permanent recovery. Gipp's mother, sister and Coach Rockne of Notre Dame have been in constant attendance at the bedside throughout the day.

EM-ROES SCRAP TIGER NETTERS HERE TONIGHT

COACH BUSS EXPECTS INDEPENDENT FIVE TO OFFER STIFF RESISTANCE FOR HIS MEN

Coach Buss gave the DePauw basketball squad another hard workout yesterday afternoon. Today the team will get the final instructions for the Em-Roe game, the opener on the present schedule, which will be played on the Bowman court floor tonight.

Buss is expecting the Em-Roe team to put up a much better exhibition of basketball ball against DePauw tonight than it played against Wabash Tuesday night. He is taking no chances of letting the game get away if it is possible to prevent it and the team is being pushed to the limit to have it in the best shape possible for the contest.

For the first time in the big gymnasium, Coach Buss has reserved a block of the balcony seats for townspeople. The game promises to attract a big crowd as basketball is the favorite sport for the fans here. While DePauw is playing the Em-Roes, the local high school team meets the Rockville High School team on the local floor.

WOMAN JUROR IN M'DONALD CASE DISMISSED BY JUDGE

TERRE HAUTE, Dec. 9.—Mrs. Marian H. Runyan, 2111 South Center street, who qualified Tuesday for service on the jury for trial of the McDonald Murder case, was excused from duty yesterday afternoon by Judge J. P. Jeffries against the protest of the attorneys for the prosecution who wished to retain Mrs. Runyan on the jury. The remainder of the session was devoted to examination of the jurors, the last of the 120 names which have been drawn being called.

It was said that Judge Jeffries, in dismissing Mrs. Runyan from the jury, maintained that the evidence to be submitted would be of such character that a woman juror should not serve. It was also said in court circles that the same reason is responsible for the employment of a special stenographer to substitute for the woman stenographer when the evidence is submitted.

CALIFORNIA MOB HANGS MURDERERS

THREE MEN WHO WERE ACCUSED OF KILLING OFFICERS ARE TAKEN FROM JAIL AND LYNCHED BY 100 MEN

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Dec. 10.—George Boyd, Terrence Flitts and Charles Valento, accused of having murdered Sheriff James A. Petray, of Sonoma county, and Detective Miles Jackson and Lester M. Dorman, here, Sunday afternoon, were taken from the county jail here early today and hanged.

At 12:30 o'clock a mob of about 100 men, all wearing black masks, entered the jail overpowered the officers, took the keys and removed the prisoners to waiting automobiles. Fifteen machines carried the party. They moved quickly down the street to a cemetery about three blocks beyond the city limits. Ropes had been prepared and the men were taken from the machines and hanged to an oak tree inside the cemetery.

Headlights of three automobiles were used to light the tree selected for the hanging and members of the mob were stationed to prevent intrusion. The guards and many of the mob were armed.

The mob worked rapidly. Within fifteen minutes the three men had been lynched. For another fifteen minutes while the bodies dangled from the oak tree in the glare of the auto lights, the mob waited to make certain that is grim task was completed. Then its members departed, leaving the bodies swinging in the darkness.

Miss Hilda Varney, the DePauw girl shot last Saturday night by William P. Sackett, is reported to be getting along nicely. She has no temperature and her pulse is normal. Miss Varney still is at the Kappa house. She will be moved to the University Hospital, as soon as her physicians will allow her to be moved so that the members of the Kappa Sorority, who are now staying at homes in the city, may return to their house.

Neely O'Hair and Ernest Stoner have returned from a hunting trip in Northern Indiana. They were gone for several days, being at the farm of Heck Hillis, near Fair Oaks, Indiana. During their hunt they killed 42 quail.

Delegates from the Locust street church at Greencastle and the churches at Limesdale, Mt. Meridian and Putnamville will be present at the afternoon meeting—Cloverdale Graphic.

Sergeant B. Roby of Terre Haute is in this city on recruiting service. He will return to Terre Haute Saturday evening.

There will be a praise service at the Christian church next Sunday evening. The entire program will be one of good music under the direction of Mr. Sherkey.

Mrs. W. E. Swintz of Indianapolis is here the guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Gobin.

BULGARIA IS ADMITED TO LEAGUE

COMMISSION ON ADMINISTRATION ADMITS BULGARIA AFTER FAVORABLE PRESENTATION BY MARSHALL FOCH—JAPAN TO GIVE BACK SHANTUNG TO CHINA—CHINA REFUSES TO OPEN NEGOTIATIONS WITH JAPAN—BALTIC STATES ARE REFUSED ADMISSION TO THE LEAGUE

GENEVA, Dec. 9.—The admission of Bulgaria to the League of Nations has been voted by the commission on the admission of new states. This action was taken after a report submitted by Marshall Foch had been read, in which the marshal declared that Bulgaria had made sincere efforts to live up to the treaty terms.

Even the "little entente" countries which had been strong in their opposition to Bulgaria, voted for her admission.

The commission also decided to permit Armenia, Albania, and Georgia to participate in the work of the technical commissions. Lichtenstein was refused admission of its interests in the league by Switzerland.

Baltic States Refused

The Baltic states were not admitted and the only remaining question is the disposition of Lithuania.

France refrained from voting on the question of Bulgaria's entry, ostensibly in order to be consistent in her opposition to German ownership.

The budget commission decide that all financial question shall go to the experts for their report to the next assembly.

Dr. Gastao DaCunha, Brazil has introduced another scheme for compulsory arbitration by the international court of justice. It provides that compulsory jurisdiction shall apply to all states whose parliaments ratify it. The "little entente" Roumania, Serbia, Czechoslovakia and Greece—has been conducting a fight for several weeks against the entrance of Bulgaria at this time, all submitting long documents outlining numerous alleged violations of the peace treaty by Bulgaria. Marshall Foch points out that Bulgarian disarmament has advanced farther than that of any other enemy state her army now consisting of 23,000 men instead of 40,000 as contended by the "little entente."

Baron Hayashi, the Japanese ambassador to Great Britain and head of the Japanese delegation to the league assembly, informed the correspondents this evening that Japan was getting ready to hand back the province of Shantung to China, but was not ready to do so until the condition Japan makes is that Kiaochow will remain open to foreign trade.

China Remains Silent

"But how can it be arranged if China will not talk?" he asked. Baron Hayashi thought that China's refusal to negotiate was due to the fact that public opinion had been falsified by the military party. He declared himself as well impressed by the work of the league assembly. He had confidence in the league but pointed out that the most interesting questions had not yet been taken up and will not come up until the United States and Germany are members.

Disarmament, he believes, will furnish a lively session of the assembly if the question is brought up. Disarmament is a general thought, he said, but some powers including his own, are increasing their naval forces—of course, not with a view to aggression, but rather to promote peace.

Baron Hayashi remarked that the Japanese delegation had refrained from bringing up any questions of a sensational nature at the assembly.

Mrs. S. C. Sayers visited relatives in Indianapolis Thursday and today.

Ed. Hibben of Greenup, Ill., formerly of this city, was here today visiting friends. Mr. Hibben for many years has been with the Vandalia railroad as head of its painting crew.

Well Matched.

A sailor was called into the witness box to give evidence. "Well, sir," said the lawyer, "do you know the plaintiff and defendant?"

"I don't know the drift of your words," answered the sailor.

"What, not know the meaning of 'plaintiff' and 'defendant'?" continued the lawyer. "A pretty fellow you, to come here as a witness. Can you tell me where on board the ship it was this man struck the other?"

"Abaft the binnacle," said the sailor.

"Abaft the binnacle?" said the lawyer. "What do you mean by that?" "A pretty fellow, you," responded the sailor, "to come here as a lawyer and don't know what 'abast the binnacle' means."

STOMACH CHURNED
LIKE A MACHINE

THIS MAN HAD SEVERE CASE OF HEARTBURN, SICK STOMACH, GAS COLLECTED PRESSING AGAINST HIS HEART, CAUSED SHORTNESS OF BREATH—LIPS TURNED BLUE, SAYS I FEEL LIKE ANOTHER PERSON AFTER TAKING DRECO

"I don't believe any one ever had a worse case of heartburn and vomiting than mine I had to stop work and go to bed for I was all in and felt like I was going to die. The gas pressed against my heart and lungs, my lips turned blue and my breathing was so bad I was alarmed. The sour gas gave me cramps and my bowels were so constipated that I was completely exhausted after every movement. I was so dizzy that I could hardly keep from falling and my stomach churned and turned over like a washing machine," declared Mr. August Poulsen of 425 W. Maryland Ave., Evansville, Ind.

"Dreco has enabled me to get back on the job and I feel sure of the future for I know what to do now when I need help. My stomach is soothed, nerves quieted, bowels move at regular times without a bit of straining, have no more gas. I eat like a hungry man should and sleep sound all through the night."

Dreco being an herb juice medicine, combines pleasantly with the juices of the stomach, and the results are quick and lasting.

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Greencastle by R. P. Mullins.

EARLIEST TEXANS
WERE CANNIBALS

Remains Found by Smithsonian Institute's Anthropological Survey.

HISTORY IN ROCK MOUNDS

Refuse Heap Reveals Human Bones That Had Been Split Apart In Order to Get at the Marrow—These Cannibals Antedated Indians.

AUSTIN, Tex.—In an age of the dim and distant past a race of cannibals inhabited the greater part of the region that is now embraced in the state of Texas, according to anthropological discoveries that were recently made by Dr. J. Walter Fewkes, head of the bureau of ethnology of the Smithsonian Institute, and J. E. Pearce, professor of anthropology at the University of Texas. These early and prehistoric inhabitants lived a nomad-like existence, roaming from one part of the wilderness to another and killing with rude stone weapons, members of their own race for food. In discussing the results of research work made by him and Dr. Fewkes, Prof. Pearce said:

"The life history of these people has been read from the records they left in their burned rock mounds of kitchen middens. These mounds are piles of broken and charred bits of limestone three or four feet high and sometimes as long as 100 feet. They are made up of the kitchen refuse of these prehistoric people who had regular camp sites at frequent intervals along the Edwards Plateau, extending from Austin westward to New Mexico.

"These people evidently were advanced to the stage of paleolithic culture, an earlier age than the period of neolithic culture, to which most of the American Indians belong. These early Texas inhabitants had arrows and spears tipped with flint points, chipped but not polished, nor did they engage in any form of agriculture. They were, however, skillful skin dressers, for we have found skin scraping tools made of flint.

"The kitchen middens which we discovered are the only thing of their kind in America, so far as I know, although they have been found in other parts of the world. At these sites camps were located with a great fireplace in the center, over which huge slabs of limestone were placed as a sort of a primitive stove upon which to cook the meat the inhabitants killed.

"We know these people were cannibals, for among the refuse heaps have been found human bones split apart in order to get at the marrow. The soft limestone slabs, being exposed to the weather, broke from time to time and were cast aside nearby, to be replaced by new ones.

"In the course of our investigations we have completely examined some 15 of these mounds and in them have found thousands of splendid specimens of chipped arrow and spear heads, as well as sampling tools and other implements. Bones of the deer, which were prevalent in this region, are found in profusion, indicating that this was the principal article of diet."

The report of the investigation is to be published by the Smithsonian Institute. The University of Texas will retain possession of a collection of material unearthed. This will form, Prof. Pearce said, the nucleus for a museum in anthropology.

When the present investigation on the Edwards Plateau has been concluded work will be started upon the "Funeral Mounds" in East Texas, which are the work of an entirely different race of people, according to Prof. Pearce. These people, he said, lived in a later period. Their pottery and polished weapons have been found in the mounds.

TEN-MINUTES' PAY.

This Stipend, Per Week, Will Satisfy Alimony Claim.

CHICAGO, Ill.—Lieutenant Eddie Nelson, an air pilot formerly in the Government service, must devote 10 minutes of each week to earning his wife's alimony. She will have him "up in the air" for that length of time in order to comply with a decree issued by Judge Trude. Nelson has been negligent in the matter and his wife brought him into court.

"He gets a dollar a minute for carrying passengers," she explained. "I think he can easily pay the $10 a week the court ordered."

"Yes, I believe he can give 10 minutes of his time each week to earning for your needs," agreed Judge Trude. "He owes me $20 back alimony," ventured the wife.

"I'll add 20 minutes work to the order," replied the judge.

Nelson was willing to pay. He even offered to give his wife's attorney a free ride.

CHARGED WITH DESERT SAND

What Is Known as the "Red Wind" Makes Life Miserable Along the Mediterranean.

Sojourners in the Mediterranean for any length of time see the red wind as well as feel its oppressive influence. It blows from the deserts of Africa and derives its name from the particles of red sand with which it is charged. Should rain descend while this wind prevails, the sand becomes mud, and thence arise the "mud showers."

In its dry state it is more oppressive by far than any other wind known to the Mediterranean, not excepting the black "sirocco." Its effects are in many ways remarkable. The sand, of excessive fineness, enters between your eyelids and your eyes; it gets into your nostrils and down your throat; it adheres to your skin and works itself into your watch; it increases the annoyance of mosquitoes, and it is so dry that, as you write or read, the paper curls up as if exposed to fire-heat. Tables and chairs of seasoned wood and of old manufacture, crack with a report almost like a pistol-shot, and no quantity of drink has much effect on your raging thirst. All this time your skin is hard and dry, and without the relieving influence of REWARDS FOR DETECTIVES.

After the cruel murder of a near relative, and when it is evident that the police are making little headway toward the capture of the murderers, it is only natural that the first thought of people of wealth should be to spur the detectives to renewed efforts by the offer of large rewards. And such offers often do produce results promptly. Some of the results are sometimes of a kind to be desired; that is, murderers that otherwise would or might have escaped punishment are caught and convicted. But these desirable results are rarely, perhaps never, the only ones, and the remainder are apt to be deplorable.

In the first place, the activity which is inspired by the chance of getting many thousands of dollars, while very likely to lead to the conviction of somebody, is by no means as likely to lead to the conviction of the right person or persons. It is not necessary to charge that the public or private detectives will deliberately try to fasten a murder upon an innocent man for the sake of getting a reward, though such things have been known, or at least strongly suspected; but the big reward does tend inevitably to make the discoverers of what looks like evidence too sure that they are on the right track and too ready to ignore little indications that they have gone astray. This may lead to the putting of poor ignorant, and friendless men in deadly peril of their lives.

"UNEMPLOYED GENTLEMEN."

"But you have no leisure class in your country," the English nobleman remarked to the American girl. "Oh, yes, we have," she replied, "but we call them tramps." At the present time England's leisure class, of which her people used to be so proud is uncomparably numerous and the problem of how to provide employment for those of its members who are without independent means has become a live topic of discussion. A recent advertisement in a London newspaper for a secretary who must speak and write French, German and Italian, and offering $1,000 a year salary, evoked 387 replies. Among the applicants for the position of companion to a gentleman of weak intellect, paying $1,000 a year, was a middle-aged baronet.

Aristocratic sentiment is now undergoing a change. "Gentlemen" are realizing that it is better to keep a shop than to starve. This also will aid in solving the problem of the "gentle unemployed." At the worst the present unpleasant situation of our English cousins should be relieved before many years.

NEW SWINDLE.

Police Discover A New Stunt In Money-Raising Line.

YOUNGSTOWN, O.—Police claim to have discovered a new money swindle here, following the arrest of James Miller, who claims Scranton, Pa., as his home.

According to police reports, Miller tendered what was supposed to be a $20 bill in payment for a drink at a near beer emporium. The keen bartender noticed the extraordinary thickness of the bill and upon investigation found the "inventor" had split a $20 bill and a $2 bill and pasted the half of a $20 bill to the half of a $2 bill and raised the figure on the smaller bill to "$20."

SOME FOLKS ARE LIKE COLTS

Some folks are like colts. They never think of health until they are sick. Health always fails at the wrong time.

Perhaps we can foresee sickness. In nearly every case those who have weak stomachs, sluggish bowels, weak kidneys, or any other form of weakness, know of it. The chiropractor finds the spinal pressure that is causing weakness and disease. He knows in many cases even before anything serious has developed that eventually you will have trouble. The spine is the index to your future health. By getting a spinal analysis and a correction of spinal deviations sickness is prevented.

Chiropractic adjustments just at this season are helping back to health hundreds of sufferers from bronchitis, tonsillitis, lumbago, rheumatism, influenza, coughs, colds, sore throat and headache.

MODERN SVENGALI CHICAGO SENSATION

Bride, Family and Wedding Guests Hypnotized While Marriage Is Performed.

A WIZARD FROM IZZARD

"Everybody Seemed to Fall Right in Line," Says Young Wife, in Explaining Her Second Marriage to Skeptical Judge Who Finally Believes.

CHICAGO, Ill.—Citizens, beware of the hypnotic orbs of the Twentieth century Svengali.

He's a wizard from Izzard, with a pair of glittering optics and hypnotic powers that can make you believe you're a hooting canary or a singing eel.

If you still disbelieve, read the bizarre tale narrated recently to Judge David in the Chicago Superior court by Mrs. Gendora Jones, aged 21, of Chicago.

She was suing to annul her marriage to Arthur Jones. Glendora ought to know. She testified she played Trilby to Svengali Jones, who, she said, hypnotized her, married her Nov. 18, 1919, although her congenial husband was still lawfully wed to her, and went so far as to shut off unceremoniously all objections of wedding guests by temporarily paralyzing their collective vocal chords.

Judge David, skeptical at first finally granted Mrs. Jones an annulment of the "hypnotic marriage," leaving her free to pursue the heretofore happy wedded life with her more prosaic husband. Mrs. Jones recited her story under the guidance of Attorney Forrest Fairfield Smith.

"Mr. Jones was a family friend," testified the witness, "and while my husband was employed in Milwaukee visited my parents. During conversation he said he was a hypnotist and that he could do anything and control anyone he wished to control. Incidentally he said he could control my will power. I told him I didn't believe he could."

"Then what did he do?"

"He put me to sleep. Just sat there and looked at me until his eyes got glassy, like a dead person's and then my mother dropped down and went to sleep. Then he told me he would control me, I said no. He asked me to marry him. I told him I couldn't and didn't believe that stuff, anyway, and he proceeded."

"Tell us how he did it."

"I don't know, everybody, my family, seemed to fall right in line. He got the marriage license and we were married. Rev. Mr. Robinson of the Antioch Baptist church performed the ceremony. Rev. Mr. Robinson did not know I was married before."

"Why didn't you object before the marriage was performed?" asked Judge David.

"I couldn't," answered the witness.
"I was afraid. He told me that if I didn't marry him he would turn me into a barking dog."

"Do you mean to tell me you believed that?" demanded the court.

"At first, I didn't. Then he demonstrated things to me and I was under his spell."

"Why didn't any one of the wedding guests—one of the 20 persons there, who knew you were married before, get up and interfere?" asked the court.

"A friend of mine got up. She said
'Oh—' and couldn't speak any more.
Her tongue was locked. Then he turned to me and said he could believe Daniel in the lion's den—said he could lock a lion's jaw."

Mrs. Jones testified that her Svengali-like husband held her in a room for two weeks after the marriage, keeping her under the hypnotic spell and waking her only to feel her. She said she finally escaped in a taxi and that her husband left Chicago when her mother threatened to prosecute him.

"This girl is mentally alert and bright—a graduate of Englewood high school of Chicago—and tells this story," said the court. "Somebody ought to go to the penitentiary for this. This man is dangerous."

MILLIONS HIDDEN.

Bank Deposits Not Increasing, Says
Federal Reserve Bank Official.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—About one-half of the total currency of the United States—$3,000,000,000—is being carried around in pockets and purses, hidden under mattresses, in socks or locked in strong boxes, is the opinion of William H. Hutt, acting governor of the Federal reserve bank here. Crooks and hold-up men consider it a poor job if they get less than $200 from a victim Hutt pointed out in upholding his contention.

The sum which is carried around or hidden in private places would pay off one-seventh of the national debt; stabilize the finances of the country;
bring Liberty Bonds back to par; strengthen international credit and bring about much needed deflation, Hutt said.

Although there is more money in circulation now than ever before, Hutt declared bank deposits are not increasing. This, he attributed to desire on the part of the people for large sums of ready cash.

He surely is most in want of another's patience who has none of his own.—L.A. Times
